SARA COLLINS SMITH.

WORTH $300,000,000.

The President of a certain Oil Company is said to be worth $300,000,000. A tidy bit of money and no mistake. And yet he isn't happy. In an address to a Bible class he spoke of trials and tribulations and the loads that have to be carried. A young lady whispered to a friend that she might wear a Benson's Boron Plaster on his back or, better still, divide the money among the members of the class. I don't know why her idea about the plaster makes me grin and chuckle, but it does. All the same I have seen plenty of people laugh after putting Benson's Plaster on their backs or chests, or on any other spot where there was weight, heartburn, weakness or pain. It may be the sharp stabs of neuralgia, the aches and wrenches of rheumatism; it may be colds in muscles or bones; it may be those kidney or bladder troubles that make you yell as at a dog bite; or it may be strain or cramp, anything that causes pain and discomfort. Do not bother with salve, liniment, ointment, or any of the stupid and useless old style plasters. Clap on a Benson's. It relieves at once and cures quickly. It stops the pain and makes you laugh for the very cause had good feeling of it. But watch out against imitations and substitutes. All druggists, or we will prepay postage on any number ordered in the United States on receipt of 25c. each.

All Stuffed Up

That's the condition of many sufferers from catarrh, especially in the morning. Great difficulty is experienced in clearing the head and throat.

No wonder catarrh causes headache, impairs the taste, smell and hearing, poisons the breath, deranges the stomach and affects the appetite.

To cure catarrh, treatment must be constitutional—alterative and tonic. "I was afflicted with catarrh. I took medicines of different kinds, giving each a fair trial; but gradually grew worse until I could hardly hear, taste or smell. I then concluded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and after taking five bottles I was cured and have not had any return of the disease since." EUGENE FOSSA, Lebanon, Kan.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
Cures catarrh—it soothes and strengthens the mucous membrane and builds up the whole system.

Mr. E. B. Hart sustained a painful accident recently, while working about the planer in Taylor & Co.'s establishment at Beaver Dam. In some way his hand came in contact with the planer and a painful cut resulted.

Misses Fannie Barnes, Viola Pirtle, Virgiline Hocker, Beaver Dam, and Mattie Pirtle, Hartford, are in attendance at Mardi Gras, New Orleans, this week. Mr. D. G. Young, of the New Wrinkle, Beaver Dam, is also in New Orleans.

Mr. Melvin Shoulders was very painfully crushed by falling slate while working in the Miller coal bank, southwest of town, Wednesday. It could not be ascertained whether his bruises were of a serious nature, but he is in a very painful condition.

Master Roy Heavrin is in Louisville being treated by an eye specialist. Mr. M. L. Heavrin had a message Tuesday stating that the specialist's examination was very discouraging. Master Roy's sight is severely impaired and the doctor fears the trouble will not yield to treatment. A natural defect aggravated by close application to school brought about his trouble.

Mr. Wm. Broughton, a laborer at Taylor Mines, was climbing over empty cars at the mines last Saturday when an engine suddenly shoved down on the cars, knocking him from the cars, he fell between them and his leg was broken in two places. He was taken to Louisville to the hospital, where his wounds are being treated. A suit for damages has been filed against the L. C. R. R. for $1,999.99. Heavrin & Woodward are his attorneys.

T. J. Turley & Co., of Owensboro, have contracted with Dr. L. B. Bean to build them a warehouse on the vacant lot opposite the First National Bank, 30x80 feet. They will handle a full line of farming implements, repairs, seeds, buggies, wagons and all kinds of farming machinery. The house will be put up as soon as possible. They will occupy J. E. Fogie's vacant store house until their new house is completed. We welcome all such people, feeling assured in advance that such a business will be remunerative to them and a great convenience to the people.

Mr. J. T. Phelps, an employee in the service of the Williams Coal Co., was seriously hurt Tuesday by falling slate, while at work in his room. He was crushed internally in the side and back, and is thought to be in a critical condition. He has a wife and five children and earns his living by daily labor. His circumstances are rather embarrassing. When calamity overtook him, it is said, he had not a 24-hour provision in his house. While he is poor, he is a very honorable gentleman. He formerly lived in Butler county and was a teacher in the public schools of that county.

Last Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. R. A. Anderson, his daughter, Miss Raynaldine, became the happy bride and life companion of Mr. B. Howard Ellis. The wedding was a quiet home affair, tho' quite a number of admiring friends and associates gathered to witness the solemn tho' happy event. Both the contracting parties are teachers in the public schools and have many friends throughout the county who join in wishing them a happy future. Mr. Ellis is attending the Southern Normal Business College at Bowling Green and will graduate from that institution in the spring. He will leave Monday to resume his school work, whilst his bride will remain with her parents until his work in school is completed. THE REPUBLICAN congratulates this young couple on their happy marriage and wishes for them a future of unbounded happiness.

Rough River Telephone Co.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Rough River Telephone Co., held in its office at Hartford, Ky., on Monday, February 10, 1902, a decided majority of the shares of stock was represented, notwithstanding the inclement weather; and a pleasant and, we trust, profitable meeting was had. A short review of the business and progress of the company, during the preceding year, was had with gratifying results. It seems to be the consensus of opinion of the stockholders that this company would now place itself upon such a financial basis as would enable it to achieve much greater results and make the business much more remunerative. In this connection we would express our most profound thanks to our many friends and patrons who have so cheerfully aided us in this home enterprise. We expect within the next thirty days to put in a new switchboard which will increase our capacity to 250 drops. We will then be able to accommodate all who may want our service. The stockholders complimented the aid board of directors by re-electing them. J. M. MATTINGLY, Pres. D. M. HOCKER, Sec'y.

A Queer People.

There is in the Equality neighborhood, in the Western part of this county, a religious sect or denomination who call themselves Northern Methodists, but are unlike any other people that belong to that church, and in fact their mode of worship and general demeanor are different from any other people, to whom our notice has ever been called. It developed on the trial of a Commonwealth case in the Centertown Justice Court last Monday, wherein a young man was charged with disturbing these people in their public worship; that they would sometimes, in the midst of their services, invoke the Deity to send upon them a massive snow cloud, that it might hurt in their midst, and one good lady said she knew it would come for one had visited her on the preceding morning.

It also developed that on one occasion, at least, a member of these people while assembled, as they said, to worship according to the dictates of their own conscience, mounted the seats and crowed like the chanticleer (rooster).

If per chance a young man should attend their meeting, wearing a collar of the latest style, (high as you know) a good sister, while shouting and praising him on high, will, perhaps, stop long enough to ask him if his collar does not hurt his neck and if same is comfortable. Truly, it can be said, that these are queer people.

Something That Will Do You Good.

We know of no way in which we can be of more service to our readers than to tell them of something that will be of real good to them. For this reason we want to acquaint them with what we consider one of the very best remedies on the market for coughs, colds, and that alarming complaint, croup. We refer to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. We have used it with such good results in our family so long that it has become a household necessity. By its prompt use we haven't any doubt but that it has time and again prevented croup. The testimony is given upon our own experience, and we suggest that our readers, especially those who have small children, always keep it in their homes as a safeguard against croup.—Camden (S. C.) Messenger. For sale by all druggists.

Twenty-five Mules Burned.

Nashville, Tenn., Feb. 11.—The feed stable of Shyer & McConnell, of this city, burned this morning, together with about twenty-five mules. The loss is about $20,000, partly covered by insurance.

For Stomach Troubles.

"I have taken a great many different medicines for stomach trouble and constipation," says Mrs. S. Geiger, of Dunkerton, Iowa, "but never had as good results from any as from Chamberlain's Stomach & Liver Tablets." For sale by all druggists.

Badly Mixed.

A tall western girl named Short long loved a certain big Little while Little, little thinking of Short, loved a little less named Long. To make a long story short, Little proposed to Long, and Short longing to see even with Little's shortcomings, and meeting Long, threatened to marry Little before long which caused Little in a short time to marry Long. Did tall Short love big Little less because big Little loved Little Long?

Thank God every morning when you get up that you have something to do that day which must be done, whether you like it or not. Being forced to work, and forced to do your best, will help in your temperance and self-control, diligence and strength of will, cheerfulness and content, and a hundred virtues which the idle never know.—Charles Kingsley.

Mrs. L. Clay Brock, of Flemingsburg, Ky., has issued an appeal to the people for aid to the wife of James L. Howard, who is left homeless and destitute, with three children to rear, the oldest which is only eight years. Mrs. Brock guarantees a subscription of $25 from Flemingsburg county. The fund is to be appropriated in building her a home and assist in rearing her children. The appeal is a worthy one and should be heartily responded to.

The Memphis Commercial Appeal has a reporter who says: "A net has been woven about their feet, and they are staggering in its meshes. And those who doubt the strength of the texture can not stand either, or they are blind to reason. When the wool and warp of the net are known and fully explained, and the process of weaving the chain link by link with almost mathematical precision and nicety is fully realized then the doubt that lingers about any assertion, whether abstract or concrete in its form withers and fades like a fog before the sun." He simply means that the evidence against two suspects is strong.

NOTICE.

Ohio Circuit Court, }
M. B. Crowder, &c. }

Petition in Equity:
Notice is hereby given that M. B. Crowder and thirty (30) other legal and qualified voters at Horse Branch, Ohio county, being more than two-thirds of the persons entitled to vote and living within the boundary of the town proposed to be established have this day filed a petition in equity in the Ohio Circuit Court asking that a town of the sixth-class be established at Horse Branch, Ohio county, Kentucky, and that the proposed boundary of said town be set out by metes and bounds as follows:

Beginning at a stone on the S. W. corner of said town 42 poles N. of Illinois Central railroad, near Miller's corner; thence S. 83 1/2 E. 83 poles to a stone near the creek; thence N. 2, W. 80 poles extending 33 poles beyond the railroad to a stone; thence S. 2 E. 80 poles to a stone; thence S. 2 E. 80 poles to a stone which does not exceed one-fourth (1/4) of a mile in each direction necessary to form a square, and that said petitioners will on the 2nd day of the next March term, 1902, of the Ohio Circuit Court, ask the Judge to establish a town of the sixth-class in the above described boundary, which town shall be named Horse Branch, and will also at the same time ask the Judge of said Court to appoint not less than five trustees, a police judge, marshal and assessor of said town as required by Section 3715, Kentucky Statutes. This, February 11, 1902. M. B. CROWDER, &c.

Wanted—Telephone Poles.

The Rough River Telephone Co. wants a lot of chestnut telephone poles, from 45 to 50 feet long, 8 inches at top. Apply to D. M. Hocker, manager, office over D. M. Moore's grocery, Hartford.

Fire at Springfield.

Springfield, O., Feb. 11.—The great East street shops built by Wm. N. Whiteley, the reaper king, at a cost of $2,000,000, were destroyed by fire to day.

The insurance is $1,300,000 on the contents and for Senator Fairbanks on the building, $110,000, a total of $240,000.

The shops at the time of their completion were the second largest in the world, being rivaled only by the great Krupp Gun Works at Essen, Germany. The shops at one time had 2,500 men on the payroll.

F. E. B.

We heard a man say the other morning that the abbreviation for February—Feb.—means freeze everybody, and that man looked frozen in his slater. It was apparent that he needed the kind of warmth that stays, the warmth that reaches from head to foot, all over the body. We could have told him from personal knowledge that Hood's Sarsaparilla gives permanent warmth, it invigorates the blood and speeds it along through artery and vein, and really fits men and women, boys and girls, to enjoy cold weather and resist the attacks of disease. It gives the right kind of warmth, stimulates and strengthens at the same, and all its benefits are lasting. There may be a suggestion in this for you.

Freedom for Two Hundred.

St. Louis, Feb. 10.—Established precedents of the United States army were overthrown and the freedom of nearly 200 men now confined in Federal penitentiaries were assured by a decision rendered by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals today in the case of Peter C. Denning, a former captain of United States volunteers, against Robt. W. McLaughey, warden at the Federal penitentiary at Fort Leavenworth.

Denning was imprisoned on the sentence of a court-martial composed of nine regular army officers, convened by Gen. W. R. Shafter, on March 29, 1900. The opinion of the Circuit Court written by Judge Walter S. Garrison is that the court-martial which sentenced Denning acted in violation of Article 77 of the articles of war, which provides that officers of the regular army shall not be competent to sit in court-martial for the trial of officers and soldiers of other forces.

The essential question as stated in Judge Sanborn's opinion is whether the volunteer army is the same as the regular army, or whether it is one of the "other forces" mentioned in Article 77. The opinion establishes the fact that the volunteer army is at all times distinct from the regular army.

Denning will be released from the Fort Leavenworth penitentiary within sixty days, and all other former members of the volunteer army confined in Federal prisons on sentences inflicted by court-martial of regular officers will also be liberated as the result of to-day's decision, it is stated. E. A. Roiser, United States District Attorney, estimates the number of such cases at 200.

Denning was a captain in the subsistence department of the volunteer army. He was commissioned under the act of 1899, providing for the en-

Bad Coughs

"I had a bad cough for six weeks and could find no relief until I tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Only one-fourth of the bottle cured me." L. Hawn, Newington, Ont.

Neglected colds always lead to something serious. They run into chronic bronchitis, pneumonia, asthma, or consumption. Don't wait, but take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral just as soon as your cough begins. A few doses will cure you then.

Three doses: 25c, 50c, 10c. All druggists.

Consult your doctor. If he says take it, then do so. If he says, "It is too late," then don't take it. It is too late. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass.

Statement of soldiers for the Philippines war. The charge against him related to his accounts. The court-martial, composed of nine officers of the regular army, dismissed Denning from the service and sentenced him to three years in the penitentiary. This sentence was affirmed by the secretary of war and approved by the President. The case was first brought in the United States Circuit Court for the District of Kansas, and was decided against Denning, who then appealed to the Circuit of Appeals in St. Louis.

INCIDENTS OF INTEREST.

At Beaver Creek, Ky., an aged man, Andy Huff, by name, 78 years of age, a pioneer and wealthy, was attacked by James Hestep and George Moore and beaten almost to unconsciousness, when his 21-year-old son, Wm. Huff, rushed to his aid from an adjacent room and shot Moore dead and mortally wounded Hestep. The aged man may not recover.

An 18-year-old of Wooster, Ohio, while sleighing last Sunday, was kicked on the head by the motor power, a runaway mule, and painfully hurt. Previously her eyes had been affected and she was compelled to use glasses. When the pain and swelling subsided her eyesight was restored. She does not use glasses any more.

A defective boiler exploded at St. Mary's, on the Lake Erie and Western railroad, while standing on the siding. The engineer and fireman were killed.

Blind twins, who were united together in a manner like the Siamese twins, were separated at Paris, France, the 8th inst., by surgical operation, which was entirely successful. The patients were weak on the account of one having the thush and the result is yet in doubt.

Sale blowers cracked the safe of the Landon Banking Company at Acworth, Ga., last Sunday morning and secured $5,000 in money and $6,000 in State Bonds and a large amount of State certificates.

R. C. Davis, who looked $75,000 while cashier of a Washington, Ind., National Bank, is on trial in the Federal Court at Indianapolis, on charge of embezzlement. Davis turned over to the bank enough real estate to cover loss.

Louisville has invited the Legislature to visit the city about February 21.

Mark Twain's Cousin,

G. C. Clemens, of Topeka, Kan., the noted constitutional lawyer, who bears so striking a resemblance to Mark Twain, (Samuel B. Clemens) that he is frequently taken for the original Mark, is a man of deep intellect and wide experience. He is considered one of the foremost lawyers in this country. In a recent letter to the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Mr. Clemens says:

"A personal experience and observation have thoroughly satisfied me that Dr. Miles' Nervous Tonic is true merit, and I feel free to say it is recommended."

Dr. Norman Waltrip, Sup. Pres. Bankers' Fraternal Society, Chicago, says:

Dr. Miles' Pain Pills

are invaluable for headache and all pain. I had been a great sufferer from headache until I learned of the efficacy of Dr. Miles' Pain Pills. Now I always carry them and prevent recurring attacks by taking a pill when the symptoms first appear."
